Buenos Aires

Reasons to visit ...

Because we say hello, hello, bonjour, ciao and olá

Faithful reflection of those who came to "the new world." In the Buenos Aires visual identity, foreign influences intermingle that make up an uneven and exciting whole. We have Spanish, Italian, French, English, Russian, Japanese, Chinese, Brazilian and Peruvian nuances, among many others. You will discover it in its architecture, in its food and in the way of speaking and being of its inhabitants.

Because you will taste all the flavors of the world in one city

Buenos Aires cuisine is based on the essence of the immigrants who populated Buenos Aires in the 19th century and enriched the Creole menu with recipes from Spain, Italy, Germany and the incredible Andean cuisine of neighboring countries.

Don't leave without trying a good "asado", Pizza, Empanadas, Dulce de leche ice cream, Alfajores, delicious Churros and, of course, the traditional MATE.

Because you are going to celebrate and laugh until (very) late and you will return with many friends

The city that never sleeps". In its pubs and bars, breweries and nightclubs, young people and adults find proposals throughout the week to enjoy. Are you going to miss its eternal night? The essence is in its people. You will understand that we enjoy talking after eating so much that we even called it "after dinner."

Because tango and Pope Francisco were born here

Tango, fusion between African culture, gauchos and indigenous peoples and the contribution of European and Middle Eastern immigrants.

He is the Pope of the "end of the world". He was born and raised in Flores, in Buenos Aires. You can visit his house and neighborhood. We are also characterized by the multiplicity of temples: Catholic churches, synagogues, Christian temples, mosques and Buddhist and Hindu centers.

Because you will understand how far the passion for football can go

In Buenos Aires you breathe football at all times; you feel it in the stadiums, you hear it in the neighborhood coffee shops and you see it in a goal hug.

You will always find sports experiences in which to immerse yourself

Because you will enjoy its most cultural side and you will be surrounded by greenery and fresh air

380 bookstores, 287 theaters and 160 museums.

The Colón is one of the four most prominent lyric theaters in the world

A nature-friendly urban destination, ideal for traveling by bicycle or on foot. Pedestrian streets, cycle paths that allow you to explore it in a sustainable way. More than 100 public green spaces.

The list of reasons goes on..

Diverse, extreme. Buenos Aires is an excellent host, welcoming people from all over the world and making them feel at home. Its people, its attractions, its food, its music are the result of all the people who visit it and turn it into a cosmopolitan and friendly city. In Buenos Aires, you will experience a thousand cities in one. Therefore, prepare to be dazzled, tour, excited and have fun in one of the most attractive cities in Latin America.
